ABOUT THE AUDIT

This report contains the results of our independent accountability audit of the Whatcom Council of Governments for the period from January 1, 2008, through December 31, 2009.

We evaluated internal controls and performed audit procedures on the activities of the Council. We also determined whether the Council complied with state laws and regulations and its own policies and procedures.

In keeping with general auditing practices, we do not examine every transaction, activity or area. Instead, the areas examined were those representing the highest risk of noncompliance, misappropriation or misuse. The following areas were examined during this audit period:

- Fixed assets – inventory and surplus
- Cash receipting – separation of duties

- Contracts – professional services
- Donations
- PayPal

RESULTS

In the areas we examined, the Council's internal controls were adequate to safeguard public assets. The Council also complied with state laws and regulations and its own policies and procedures in the areas we examined.

AUDIT HISTORY

We audit the Council biennially. The past six audits have been free of findings. We attribute this to the Council's strong internal controls and timely response to audit recommendations.

ABOUT THE STATE AUDITOR'S OFFICE

The State Auditor's Office is established in the state's Constitution and is part of the executive branch of state government. The State Auditor is elected by the citizens of Washington and serves four-year terms.

Our mission is to work in cooperation with our audit clients and citizens as an advocate for government accountability. As an elected agency, the State Auditor's Office has the independence necessary to objectively perform audits and investigations. Our audits are designed to comply with professional standards as well as to satisfy the requirements of federal, state, and local laws.

The State Auditor's Office employees are located around the state to deliver our services effectively and efficiently.

Our audits look at financial information and compliance with state, federal and local laws on the part of all local governments, including schools, and all state agencies, including institutions of higher education. In addition, we conduct performance audits of state agencies and local governments and fraud, whistleblower and citizen hotline investigations.

The results of our work are widely distributed through a variety of reports, which are available on our Web site and through our free, electronic subscription service. We continue to refine our reporting efforts to ensure the results of our audits are useful and understandable.

We take our role as partners in accountability seriously. We provide training and technical assistance to governments and have an extensive quality assurance program.
